Anti-Slavery Office,
Aug. 25, 1833.

187.

Dear Garrison:

Our City Society is thinking of getting up an anti-Slavery meeting here on the Sunday which intervenes between the Temperance Convention and the W. R. Convention. What do you say? There certainly ought to be an anti-Slavery demonstration here, during some time the present season, when the city is so thronged.

We shall have Lucy Stone, Wendell Phillips and yourself here, I suppose, and why can we not make a grand demonstration on next Sunday week?

Pray let me hear from you at once. If you say the word, our Society will go ahead with the arrangements.

Yours Truly,

O. Johnson.
